POLIRURAL

Future Oriented Collaborative Policy Development for Rural Areas and People

IMPLEMENTATION PERIOD

1 June 2019 - 31 May 2022

TOTAL BUDGET
5.999.875,00 €

PoliRural is a research and innovation project designed to advance rural policy development in the age of disruptive data and technologies in order to deliver a trusted, scalable and transferable solution for policy co-creation.

It brings together decision makers, experts and rural inhabitants using advanced policy simulation tools to better understand and tackle regional challenges, ultimately making rural areas and professions more attractive and liveable for established populations and recent or potential newcomers.
